Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan

Note:
A Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP) is required for all staff and students unable to self-evacuate in an emergency. Provision for staff/students/visitors who are unable to self-evacuate is the responsibility of the organiser of the class/lecture/event/meeting. While the School is responsible for preparing this, staff and students requiring assistance should confirm the evacuation arrangements.

Disabled Access Guide for 22A Buccleuch Place

Introduction

22A Buccleuch Place houses an English Literature department where research is undertaken on the Carlyle Letters, Centre for the History of the Book, Centre for the History of Ideas in Scotland and the Edinburgh Review.

Location

22A Buccleuch Place is located within what is referred to as the Central Campus of the University of Edinburgh which is well served by public transport. The building is within approximately one mile of the city centre and is within approximately three quarters of a mile of the main student residences at Pollock Halls.

The nearest railway line is at Waverley Station in the city centre.

The nearest bus stops are located on Buccleuch Street and Chapel Street in excess of 200 metres of 22 Buccleuch Place. Numerous bus services stop on these streets (see map on the following page). Details of timetables are available from Lothian Buses, from their offices within the city and online from: http://www.mybustracker.co.uk.

Persons arriving by vehicle can access Buccleuch Place via Buccleuch Street (see map on the following page).

Parking

Within the Central Campus there are numerous parking spaces. Anyone wishing to park within a university bay must display a valid parking permit. This includes staff, students, visitors and contractors.

There are several university parking bays, including a disabled bay, located on Buccleuch Place to the rear of George Square Theatre (see location map). These bays are located approximately 50 metres from the main entrance, the bay surface comprises granite setts and there are no drop kerbs to the adjacent footpaths.

If you do not hold a valid permit and require use of a university bay, it is recommended that contact is made with Transport & Parking prior to your journey (see contact information page).
There is no wheelchair access to this building.

There is ample City of Edinburgh Council ‘pay and display’ street parking located along Buccleuch Place. The street surface comprises granite setts and there are limited drop kerbs to the adjacent footpath.
