G. Equality Impact Assessment

1. Overview. Indicate the current status of the policy/practice or the stage of development/review. Also note any general comments here regarding the relevance and significance of the policy/practice to equality. Which aspects of the policy/practice are particularly relevant (which should be the main focus for EqIA)? On what aspects of equality does the policy/practice particularly impact?

This existing remit has been reviewed for equality impact purposes.

2. To which equality groups are the policies/practice relevant? Policies/practices applying to substantial groups of students or staff will be relevant to all equality groups, which should be noted. However, also indicate any equality groups for which the policy/practice is particularly relevant, and why.

The protected characteristics under the Equality Act are (delete any that are not relevant):

- Age
- Disability
- race (including ethnicity and nationality)
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation
- gender reassignment
- pregnancy and maternity
- marriage or civil partnership¹

The work of the Student Support Implementation Group (SSIG) applies to all students and could therefore have an impact on any of the protected characteristic groups.

3. What evidence is available about the needs of relevant equality groups? E.g. information/feedback from equality groups or other stakeholders, involvement or research with equality groups or individuals, equality monitoring data, service monitoring data, information for other similar policies/practices, staff surveys, research reports, demographic information, audit, inspection or management reports and recommendations.

SSIG considers practices which apply to all undergraduate and postgraduate students on taught programmes and could therefore have an impact on any of the protected characteristic groups. SSIG has established frameworks, to set expectations for consistency and minimum requirements to be met. As part of the work of evaluating the Enhancing Student Support project, SSIG reviews evidence gathered using the IT tools developed as part of the project. It has also benchmarked relevant developments against other institutions.

Where are the gaps in evidence? If there is insufficient information to properly assess the policy, how will this be addressed? If information cannot be gathered now, consider building monitoring into the plans for implementation/review of the policy/practice. Note: the resources put into collecting evidence should be proportionate to the relevance of the policy/practice to equality.

We believe there are no gaps in the evidence required for SSIG's remit.

4. Might the application of this policy/practice lead to discrimination, harassment or victimisation? Might it result in less favourable treatment for particular equality groups or give rise to indirect discrimination?

No

5. Are reasonable adjustments built in where they may be needed?

Not applicable. This relates to the Student Support Implementation Group remit.

6. Does the policy/practice contribute to advancing equality of opportunity²? Will it help to:

- remove or minimise disadvantage
- meet the needs of different equality groups
- encourage increased participation of particular groups
- take account of disabled people's impairments?

The remit of SSIG relates to enhancing the student experience and guidance and support for all students.

7. Is there an opportunity in applying these policies/practices to foster good relations between people in any protected group and those who are not³? Will it help to tackle prejudice and/or promote understanding?

No

Is there evidence (or an expectation) that people from different equality groups have different needs or experiences in relation to the policy/practice? If so, what are they?

No

8. Is there evidence (or an expectation) of higher or lower uptake by any equality group(s)? If so, give details of the differences and the reasons for these (if known)? No

9. Is any equality group excluded from participating in or accessing the service or functions? If so, why? No

10. Does the policies/practice create any barriers for any other groups? For example, because of the time when the service is delivered or because of restricted income? Is the communication of the policies/practice accessible to all groups?

No barriers are created. The remit will be made available in different formats if necessary.

11. How are relevant equality groups or communities involved in the development, review and/or monitoring of the policy or practice?

The Learning and Teaching Committee has oversight of SSIG. LTC has widespread membership, including student and EUSA members, and has been equality impact assessed.

12. Are there any other points to note regarding the potential or actual impact of applying the policy or practice, with regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality and promote good relations? If so, note these here. No.

² This question does not apply to the protected characteristic of marriage or civil partnership

³ This question does not apply to the protected characteristic of marriage or civil partnership.

H. Equality Impact Assessment Outcome

I Action and Monitoring

1. Specify the actions required to implement the findings of this EqIA.
