

DSE Telephone Consultation

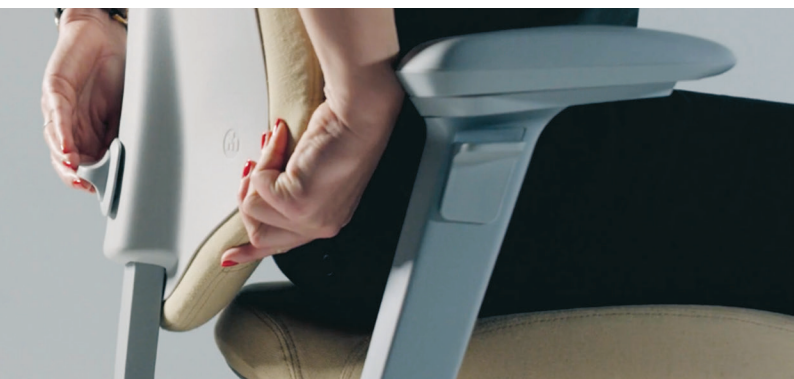

Solve workstation issues remotely

Choose our telephone consultation service and you'll enjoy the same quality and depth of advice provided in our face-to-face assessments, without having to wait for someone to visit you.

Receive life-changing posture and set-up advice at your convenience. Using a combination of measurements, photographs and a short phone call, our experienced DSE assessors will be able to draw up a report that highlights risk areas and suggests improvements to help you feel as comfortable and productive as possible.

- ✓ Fast and convenient
- ✓ No compromise on quality
- ✓ Qualified assessors
